More accurate, more consistent, and of higher-quality, Benjamin Match Grade airgun pellets give hunters and target shooters the dependability you need to bullseye shot after shot. We make these domed pellets from a single-, high-quality lead wire source, ensuring material is within tolerance specifications and maintains consistency. Each pellet is shaped using the same die, keeping head size, weight, and shape identical throughout each product line. Once you dial in your shot with Benjamin Match Grade Airgun Pellets, the target is yours.

Look for Benjamin Match Grade pellets in our new packaging.
